

John Petridis

Principal Consultant

Profile

With over 15 years in the IT industry, John has extensive and valued technical and business experience. During this time, John has progressed through a variety of IT roles comprising of Project Management, Business Analysis, Leadership & Mentoring. Engaged on projects predominantly for large organisations, John has successfully delivered projects in the Banking, Telecommunications, Health, Logistics, Energy and Government industries within an agile or waterfall environment.

Throughout his engagements John has played a critical role in a senior or lead capacity. John showcases great management and leadership qualities and highlights a strong strategic acumen having participated in multiple leadership workshops. John is a People Leader within his consulting firm and uses his strong coaching and mentoring skills to ensure that the people he manages have the right support and guidance to succeed.

Key Skills & Technologies

- Business Analysis
- Project Management
- Project Delivery
- Data Analysis
- Data Mapping
- Data Migration
- Data Governance
- Software Development
- SDLC
- Process Improvement
- Requirements Analysis
- Requirements Gathering
- Stakeholder Management
- Problem Solver
- Team Leadership
- Mentoring
- Agile
- Collibra
- SSIS
- SQL
- MS Project
- Amazon S3
- Salesforce
- Telematics

Consultant Profile

Selected Project Experience

Leading Australian University

Lead a team of specialist Data Consultants to plan and deliver the crucial Data Migration stream on a multi-year transformation program, including:

- Creating the overall Data Migration stream delivery plan, budget and resource profile
- Developing the data migration and testing strategy
- Developing and presenting a new Data Governance operating model supporting data migration and ongoing data management
- Analysis and classification of source system data
- Data modelling between legacy source systems and new target systems
- Detailed data migration planning, execution and reporting aligned to overall program schedule and inter-stream dependencies

Leading Australian Logistics Organisation

Lead a team of specialist Data Consultants in the delivery of a number of targeted data management / uplift projects within the context of a broader Parcel Delivery Efficiency Improvement program, including:

- Business Case development and presentation
- Requirements elicitation, Solution architecture and design
- Creation of project plans, resource plans and budget estimates
- Execution of projects and management of assigned resources as per agreed plans and budgets
- Monitoring, tracking and reporting project status
- Issue, risk and dependency tracking and management
- Key stakeholder engagement

Big Four Financial Services Institution

Lead and managed a number of complex technical projects delivering core components within a credit management transformation program introducing innovative cutting-edge credit risk capabilities fundamental to improving customer and banking experience, including:

- Leading and managing RFx processes
- Business Case development and presentation
- Requirements elicitation, Solution architecture and design
- Creation of project plans, resource plans and budget estimates
- Execution of projects and management of assigned resources as per agreed plans and budgets
- Monitoring, tracking and reporting project status
- Issue, risk and dependency tracking and management
- Key stakeholder engagement

Industry Experience

Education

Logistics

Utilities

Financial Services

Telecommunications

Health

Government

Certification

Collibra – Certified Solution Architect

Prince 2 – Certified Project Manager

Bachelor – Applied Science, Information Technology
RMIT University

